

Why eSentire

Put Your Business Ahead of Disruption with eSentire. See why over 1500 organizations entrust their security services to eSentire.

Build a more responsive cybersecurity operation to protect your business and its most critical processes from the impact of cybercrime. Our complete, multi-signal Managed Detection and Response (MDR) service provides 24/7 cutting-edge protection to prevent cybercriminals from ever disrupting your business.

We do more than Managed EDR – and Multi-Signal Matters

- ✓ eSentire MDR means multi-signal telemetry and complete response
- ✓ We provide comprehensive visibility across your layered attack surface, delivering rapid correlation, deep investigations, and multiple points of contextual awareness + response
- ✓ Our signal sources include network, endpoint, log, cloud, email and identity

One platform. Your complete attack surface protected.

- ✓ Our Atlas XDR Cloud Platform provides reliability, redundancy, and security at scale
- ✓ Our scalable, distributed platform ingests multiple signal sources, normalizing and correlating data across our global customer base
- ✓ Patented Machine Learning models and artificial intelligence applications eliminate noise and provide real-time detection of threats including zero-day attacks
- ✓ Automated defenses block malicious IOCs and IPs known to eSentire over 3M times per day
- ✓ Atlas XDR learns with each detection, correlating and amplifying detection measures across our global customer base to deliver proactive Security Network Effects

24/7 LIVE support anytime and every time you need it most

- ✓ 24/7 SOC Support for security event monitoring and eyes on glass
- ✓ 24/7 Threat Hunting across our XDR platform, Elite Threat Hunters and Threat Response Unit
- ✓ 24/7 On Demand Incident Response as a retainer model with the industry's only 4-hour Threat Suppression SLA, anywhere in the world.

We support your end-to-end risk management with strategic services, threat disruption and incident response offerings

- ✓ Managed Risk Services – strategic services including Vulnerability Management, Managed Phishing and Security Awareness Training to identify gaps, build defensive strategies and continuously improve your security program
